

Frederick W. Coleman

---

Education:

Wesleyan University—Degree in Religion & Sociology
University of Pennsylvania—Medical Degree
Presbyterian-University of Pennsylvania—Medical Internship
University of Wisconsin-Madison Psychiatric Residency

Certifications & Affiliations:

- Member of American Psychiatric Association
- Member of Wisconsin Medical Society
- Member of the clinical faculty at the University of Wisconsin since 1982
- Employee of Mental Health Center of Dane County

Passion & Vision: That all people who need high quality psychological/mental health services directed at the whole person including their religious/spiritual beliefs have access to those services.

Clinical Experience: 32 years working in psychiatry, emergency services, outpatient services, inpatient services, Academic Clinical faculty at University of Wisconsin Hospitals and clinics for 33 years.

Professional Experience in Treating:

- trauma
- emergency mental health
- psychopharmacology
- cross-cultural psychiatry
- personality disorders
- grief
- bereavement
- religion
- spirituality
- brief therapy
- CBT
- Dynamic Psychotherapy

Other Services Offered:

- Psychiatric Evaluation
  - 1-1 1/2 hour review of biological, psychological, interpersonal and spiritual components at a person's situation with diagnosis and recommendations for treatment.
- Psychiatric Consultation-
  - 1-1 1/2 hour review of a specific issue raised by a person or their therapist, with recommendations of how to address it in treatment.