

Cherí Milton

Education: Master's degree in marriage and family therapy, from Edgewood College and an undergraduate degree in human development and family relationships from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Certifications & Affiliations:

- Licensed Marriage/Family Therapist-2001
- Association of Death Education and Counseling—2008 certified Thanatologist
- National Hospice Palliative Care Organization
- Wisconsin Marriage and Family Therapists

Passion & Vision: “To education, teach, and counsel others in order for them to gain insight and identify solutions to live a better life.

Clinical Experience: 25 years of counseling, 11 years as a marriage and family therapist with licensure and 5 years of specific grief and loss counseling through HospiceCare Inc.

Professional Experience in Treating:

- Women's Issues
- Marriage Counseling
- Family issues
- Grief and loss

Current Areas of Focus:

- Group for women whose husbands or significant others struggle with a “sexual addiction”
- Couples therapy group
- Grief counseling for complex grief due to the death of a loved one

Other Services Offered:

- Presentation and Education regarding various topics
 - Grief and Loss
 - Communication
 - Stress and Burnout/Compassion Fatigue
 - Positive Christian Living
 - Women's Issues